

Current Wall Light Green

PRODUCT FACT SHEET

Current Wall Light Green

Graphic, quirky and just stunning! The Current Wall Light is an actual pièce de resistance that looks mesmerisingly good! We may seem overly excited about this wall light, but the point stands. The Current Wall Light is intriguing in various ways: Not only is it quite substantial in size, but the bold design language and colour combination work so well with the opal rounded glass shade that balances the overall expression. The green fabric cord manifests the presence of the Current Wall Light across any given room. Just wow!
