*Introducing new sizes and finishes
to the Epoch Collection.*

Audo Copenhagen updates the series of minimally elegant storage pieces by Danish designer Nina Bruun. Inspired by 1950s design aesthetics and traditional craftsmanship, the Epoch Collection improves and beautifies well-known objects with clean lines, intuitive function and natural materials that play out on space-saving designs in warm wood tones.

Designed for use in a variety of spaces, from hallways to bedrooms to bathrooms, the multifunctional Epoch Shelf with Rack, 118 cm seamlessly integrates both a shelf and a hanging rail. Concealed within its sleek profile are 11 wooden pegs for hanging clothes and accessories and a recessed ledge for storing or displaying items. The Epoch Shelf, 150 cm offers a deep shelf on one side and a ledge on the other, allowing users to store or stow objects in a practical storage solution for modern living.

Both designs are available in natural and dark stained steam-bent oak veneer finishes. The Epoch Collection also comprises the Epoch Rack and the Epoch Shelf, available in 50 cm and 79 cm versions and in the same materials as the new additions.

About the Designer

Holding a master's degree in Furniture and Spatial Design from The Royal Danish Academy of Design, Nina Bruun's work as a designer has earned her a Red Dot Design Award and representation in the permanent collection at the Museum of Arts and Design in New York. She opened her consultancy in Copenhagen in 2016 and, together with her team, works across product design, visual identity and trend forecasting. Her innate understanding of form and uncompromising approach to quality result in lasting designs imbued with deeper meaning. Her work has been featured in titles such as Wallpaper, Le Figaro, The Herald Tribune and Design Milk.
